Chapter – 2

Provision for Inflow and Recording of Foreign Investment

3. Regarding inflow of foreign currency for feasibility study and pre-operating expenses:
- (1) Foreign investors willing to remit/bring in foreign currency to Nepal through the banking system for feasibility study expenses including registration of company and industry, and pre-operating expenses for foreign investment in company and industry shall not require prior approval of foreign investment or approval from the Rastra Bank.
- (2) The amount pursuant to sub-bylaw (1) shall not exceed 3 percent of the paid-up capital of the company and industry to have foreign investment, and it can be counted as foreign investment as per the expenses certified by the auditor, and the recording thereof shall be done according to bylaw 5. However, such amount cannot be repatriated in case foreign investment could not be made or if it exceeds the total amount that has been counted as foreign investment.
- (3) Bank and financial institution may deposit the amount as per sub-bylaw (1) in the account of the interested foreign investor or official local representative of foreign investor. The bank and financial institution shall take an application in the format specified in Schedule-1 from the interested foreign investor and the authorized local representative to deposit the amount.

4. No prior approval required from the Rastra Bank: (1) After the foreign investor receives foreign investment approval from the foreign investment approving entity, it is not mandatory to obtain prior approval from the Rastra Bank to send or bring in the foreign currency into Nepal. However, after approval of foreign investment, written information must be given to the Unit in the format specified in Schedule-2 before bringing in or remitting foreign currency. According to Foreign Investment and Technology Transfer (First Amendment) Regulation, 2023, if foreign investment cannot be brought within the specified period, approval for extension of time from the foreign investment approving entity must also be submitted.³

(2) The amount of foreign investment remitted in Nepal pursuant to sub-bylaw (1) shall be deposited by bank and financial institution into the account of respective company or industry, ensuring the documents in accordance with Schedule-3.

(3) Notwithstanding anything written in sub-bylaw (1)³, prior approval of the Rastra Bank must be obtained to bring in or remit foreign currency to Nepal for foreign investment with change of share ownership. For this, the industry/company to have foreign investment or foreign investor has to submit an application to the Unit with documents mentioned in Schedule-4. Within 15 working days from the date of receipt of the application along with all documents, the Rastra Bank shall take a decision and give written information to the applicant². Once such approval has been obtained from the Rastra Bank, bank and financial institution shall ascertain and deposit foreign currency pertaining to foreign investment in account of the concerned industry/company.

However, in the following cases, approval of the Rastra Bank shall not be required for foreign investment with change in share ownership. For such, the amount of foreign investment shall be deposited in account of the concerned company or industry by following the procedure of sub-bylaw (1) and (2).³

- (i) Foreign investment that does not decrease the ratio of existing shareholding of Nepali shareholders.
- (ii) Foreign investment in the company listed in the stock market.
- (iii) Foreign investment in industry categorized as sick industry as per the Industrial Enterprises Act, 2020.

(4) Pursuant to sub-bylaw (1), (2), and (3), and sub-bylaw (1) of bylaw 3, the concerned bank and financial institution shall issue a certificate in the format specified in Schedule-5, following the remittance of foreign currency into Nepal.

5. Foreign investment to be recorded: (1) In order to record foreign investment brought into Nepal in accordance with bylaw 3 and bylaw 4, and foreign investment made in compliance with prevailing laws, the companies/industry having foreign investment or foreign investor shall submit an application along with the documents as per Schedule-6 within the period of six months from the date of remittance of foreign currency or having foreign investment in the format prescribed in Schedule-7 to the Unit.

(2) For foreign investment remitted prior to coming into effect (including amendment) of this bylaw, or the foreign investment made in accordance with the prevailing provisions but not recorded, an application has to be submitted to the Unit for the purpose of recording, along with the documents as per bylaw (1) within January 13, 2025.³

(3) Upon receipt of the application along with all the documents, as per sub-bylaw (1) and (2), the Rastra Bank shall make decision on recording and provide a certificate of recording as per Schedule-8 within seven working days.

(4) For ratification-approval and recording of remitted foreign investment without obtaining prior approval of the Rastra Bank in accordance with bylaw 4(3) or without giving written information to the Unit in format specified in Schedule-2 as provided in bylaw 4(1) after obtaining the approval of foreign investment, an application along with reason for the same must be submitted to the Unit in the format as per Schedule-7B, along with documents as per Schedule-7A. The deadline for submission of application under this provision shall be January 13, 2025.³

(5) After receiving the application along with all documents as per sub-bylaw (4), the Rastra Bank may provide the certificate of recording as per Schedule-8 after making decision and mentioning the same regarding ratification-approval and recording of foreign investment.²

(6) It shall not be mandatory to send back the excess amount received, due to exchange rate, than the approved foreign investment amount. After receiving the approval of foreign investment from foreign investment approving entity to cover such excess amount, it can be recorded as foreign investment in compliance with other provisions related to recording.³

(7) Amount greater than the approved foreign investment amount can also be brought in as foreign investment. Such excess amount can be recorded as foreign investment if the foreign investment approving entity provides ratification-approval for the excess amount, or if approval for the foreign investment is provided after inflow of such excess amount mentioning the excess amount and the date. All other recording related provisions must be complied while recording such as foreign investment.³

Clarification: For the above-mentioned contingent fees/expenses or other contingent/non-contingent fees/expenses, approval from the Rastra Bank is to be taken such that they are stipulated in the loan agreement and remain within the stipulated ceiling of interest rate including taxes on them as per prevailing laws.³

9. Foreign currency loan can be brought with denomination in Nepali Rupees such that foreign exchange rate risk is with the concerned lender. The interest rate on such loans shall be up to the average base rate of commercial banks licensed by the Rastra Bank (as mentioned in the latest “Current Macroeconomic and Financial Situation of the Country” published by the Rastra Bank).²

However, in the case of foreign loan in commercial agriculture, manufacturing industry, infrastructure industry, tourism industry and energy industry, an additional two percentage points can be added to the specified interest rate. Foreign loan denominated in NPR shall be recorded in NPR.³

10. In case of foreign loan at a fixed interest rate, it can be up to the maximum interest rate mentioned in the above-mentioned table at the time of approval of foreign loan by the Rastra Bank. The period for which the fixed interest rate is applicable can be up to a maximum of two years at a time³. Within the maturity of the loan, approval can be obtained from the Rastra Bank for application of fixed interest rate for the maximum of two years at a time. However, the two-year limit on fixed interest rate shall not be applicable if the interest rate is up to the premium and addition of 25 basis points without the benchmark interest rate for various types of loans as specified in the bylaw. In the case of loans denominated in NPR, the period for which the fixed interest rate is applicable shall be up to a maximum of ten years at a time.³ In case, the fixed interest rate is not approved by the Rastra Bank, the interest rate specified in the table above shall apply. This provision shall be effective for approval of foreign loan, only after amendment in the bylaw has come into effect.¹
11. For foreign loans as mentioned in S.N. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 8, the industry/company with foreign investment shall have to submit proof of recording of foreign investment and the application for foreign loan is to be submitted to the Unit.²
12. For foreign loan transaction, apart from the lender and the borrower, no other third party (including local) is allowed to be included and no payment is allowed to them. For consultation and other services on behalf of the lender, arrangement shall have to be made for payment of such by the lender.²

However, this provision shall not prohibit the following cases³:

- 1) In the case of loans under S.N. 6 and 7, inclusion of foreign third party as specified in the loan agreement without incurring any payments.
 - 2) In the case of loans under S.N. 6 and 7, payment from the borrower to the local legal businessperson for foreign loan related legal consultation works with concurrence of the lender as specified in the loan agreement and within the aforementioned interest rate ceiling.
13. Except as specified by the Rastra Bank, no movable or immovable property including mortgage, lien, security, surety, bank guarantee, etc. can be provided for foreign loan.²
14. The use of foreign loan in sectors such as housing, real estate like land development, and securities market is not allowed.²
15. A loan, initially brought in as foreign loan with the option for the borrower to convert the remaining principal amount of such loan partially or fully into foreign investment either within the loan tenor or after the maturity of loan tenor, can be availed subject to compliance of the following provisions:³
- 1) Such loan related transactions shall have to be specified in the initial loan agreement and approved by the Rastra Bank during the loan approval.
 - 2) For such loan, a foreign investment ratification-approval or foreign investment approval shall have to be obtained from foreign investment approving entity after inflow of the foreign loan stating the amount and the date.
 - 3) Though inflow such amount occurs before approval of foreign investment, it shall be recorded as foreign investment in compliance with all other prevailing provisions.
16. Licensed "A" class commercial banks, for the purpose of providing loans or for the purpose of securing loans that have already been provided locally, may accept financial guarantee issued by foreign banks and financial institutions along with foreign pension funds, hedge funds, Government/Inter-Government owned Development Finance Institutions (DFIs) and other lending institutions approved by regulatory entities. The concerned commercial banks, on their own, shall have to analyze other security, foreign exchange, and other related risks while granting loans or securing loans that have already been granted in Nepal, on the basis of such bank guarantee or financial guarantee. When providing loans or securing loans that have already been provided, it shall be for the purposes specified in S.N.6 and 7 only of the table above. If such financial guarantee is invoked and inflow of funds occur, approval of the Rastra Bank is required for repatriation of funds abroad.³
17. Other terms and conditions shall be as determined by Rastra Bank from time to time.

Benchmark Interest Rates¹:

- (a) Secured Overnight Financing Rate (SOFR), Sterling Overnight Interbank Average Rate (SONIA), Swiss Average Rate Overnight (SARON), Tokyo Overnight Average Rate (TONA) and Euro Short-term Rate (€STER) shall apply for new loans denominated in USD, GBP, CHF, JPY, and EUR respectively.

- (b) If fallback provisions in place of LIBOR after December 31, 2021 is mentioned in the erstwhile loan agreement, it shall be in accordance with such. However, provided that such fallback provisions constitute SOFR, SONIA, SARON, TONA, or €STER, a maximum of all-in-cost 50 basis points may be added in the approved margin based on LIBOR with concurrence of both the lender and the borrower.
- (c) If no fallback provisions in place of LIBOR after December 31, 2021 is mentioned in the erstwhile loan agreement, it shall be as per the erstwhile provisions till June 30, 2023 for loan denominated in USD and for LIBOR benchmark interest of overnight, 1 month, 3 months, 6 months or 12 months tenor (subject to publication of such LIBOR benchmarks). Additionally, for foreign loans of tough legacy contracts denominated in GBP and JPY having LIBOR benchmark interest rate of 1 month, 3 months, or 6 months tenor, it shall be as per LIBOR computed by Synthetic Methodology until December 31, 2022 (subject to the publication of such LIBOR benchmarks).
- (d) For erstwhile loan agreements not falling under point (b) and (c) above, SOFR (for loans denominated in USD), SONIA (for loans denominated in GBP), SARON (for loans denominated in CHF), TONA (for loans denominated in JPY), and €STER (for loans denominated in EUR) benchmark interest rates corresponding to erstwhile tenor shall come into effect in place of LIBOR after December 31, 2021, and a maximum of all-in-cost 50 basis points may be added in the approved margin based on LIBOR with concurrence of both the lender and the borrower.

#The aforementioned amended condition shall apply only to new loans and/or renewal of loans subsequent to coming into effect of the amended condition.
